Biography :

I was born in Ashtabula, Ohio during a heavy snow storm on January 25th, 1979. I graduated from Ashtabula Harbor High School in the spring of 1997. After graduation I began my studies in the arts. I spent some time traveling the country and learning about life. I took some classes here and there, but found that I was my own best teacher. I spent 6 years in New York City, and have now been exploring the great North West for more than a year.
